

Due Process as a Limit to Discretion in International Commercial Arbitration

Edited by

Franco Ferrari
Friedrich Rosenfeld
Dietmar Czernich

CORTE SUPREMA BIBLIOTECA
SIG. TOPOGRAFICA G 2748	INVENTARIO 151.775

DONACION

RIVERA, Julio (h.)

Wolters Kluwer

Summary of Contents /

Editors	v
Contributors	vii
Editors' Note	xxix
CHAPTER 1 General Report Franco Ferrari, Friedrich Rosenfeld & Dietmar Czernich	1
CHAPTER 2 Country Report: Argentina Julio César Rivera Jr.	41
CHAPTER 3 Country Report: Brazil Rafael Francisco Alves	55
CHAPTER 4 Country Report: Canada Andrea K. Bjorklund & Benjamin R. Jarvis	91
CHAPTER 5 Country Report: China Zheng Tang	115
CHAPTER 6 Country Report: The Republic of Cyprus Soterios Loizou	135

Summary of Contents

CHAPTER 7
Country Report: France
Caroline Kleiner	157
CHAPTER 8
Country Report: Germany
Friedrich Rosenfeld	177
CHAPTER 9
Country Report: Hong Kong
Z.J. Jennifer Lim & Charlotte Lelong	195
CHAPTER 10
Country Report: India
Aditya Singh & Zehaan Trivedi	217
CHAPTER 11
Country Report: Italy
Francesca Ragno	237
CHAPTER 12
Country Report: Japan
Koji Takahashi	251
CHAPTER 13
Country Report: Middle East
Nayla Comair-Obeid & Zeina Obeid	265
CHAPTER 14
Country Report: The Netherlands
Jacob B. van de Velden & Abdel Khalek Zirar	279
CHAPTER 15
Country Report: Norway
Giuditta Cordero-Moss	313
CHAPTER 16
Country Report: Russia
Mikhail Batsura	329
CHAPTER 17
Country Report: Singapore
Jonathan Lim	353

Summary of Contents

CHAPTER 18
Country Report: Switzerland
Simon M. Hohler	375
CHAPTER 19
Country Report: United Kingdom
Hattie R. Middleditch	399
CHAPTER 20
Country Report: The United States of America
Ina C. Popova & Duncan Pickard	429
/ Index	449

Table of Contents

Editors	v
Contributors	vii
Editors' Note	xxix
CHAPTER 1
General Report
Franco Ferrari, Friedrich Rosenfeld & Dietmar Czernich	1
§1.01 Introduction	1
§1.02 The General Framework on Due Process	3
[A] Normative Basis	3
[B] Interpretation	6
[C] Threshold	10
[D] Waivers	12
[E] The Applicable Standards of Review	17
§1.03 Specific Manifestations of Due Process	19
[A] The Right to Be Heard	19
[1] The Right to Make Submissions and Evidentiary Offers in Support of One's Case	19
[2] The Right to Comment on Submissions and Evidentiary Offers by Opposing Party	21
[3] The Right to Comment on Findings of the Arbitral Tribunal	24
[4] The Arbitral Tribunal's Duty to Take Cognizance and Consider the Parties' Submissions and Evidentiary Offers	26
[B] The Right to Equal Treatment	30
[C] Obligation to Ensure Proper Notice	32
[D] Independence and Impartiality	36
§1.04 Conclusion	38

CHAPTER 2
Country Report: Argentina
Julio César Rivera Jr.	41
§2.01 Introduction and Scope	41
§2.02 Argentine Arbitration Law	42
§2.03 The Violation of Due Process as a Ground for Annulment in Domestic and International Commercial Arbitration	43
§2.04 The Interpretation of “Fundamental Procedural Errors” as Annulment Ground by Argentine Courts	44
[A] A Preliminary Distinction: “Formal or Procedural Errors” Versus “Substantive Errors”	44
[B] The Requirements of “Fundamental Procedural Errors” as Annulment Ground: Materiality and Timely Objection	45
[C] The Sources of Fundamental Procedural Guarantees in Arbitration Proceedings	46
[D] Recurrent Issues Concerning “Fundamental Procedural Errors” as Annulment Ground	47
[E] The Relevance of the Constitutional Protection Against “Arbitrariness” in the Review of Arbitral Awards Under the Ground of “Fundamental Procedural Errors”	48
[1] “Arbitrariness” as a Ground Used by the Supreme Court for Overturning Lower Courts’ Decisions	49
[2] The (Limited) Expansion of the “Arbitrariness Doctrine” into the Review of Arbitral Awards	51
§2.05 Conclusion	53
CHAPTER 3
Country Report: Brazil
Rafael Francisco Alves	55
§3.01 Introduction	55
§3.02 The Normative Framework on Due Process in Brazil	55
§3.03 Relevant Case Law on Due Process in Brazil	60
[A] Introduction on Scope and Methodology	60
[B] Case Law on Foreign Awards	70
[C] Case Law on Domestic Awards	77
[D] Conclusion	80
Annex Relevant Brazilian Case Law	84
CHAPTER 4
Country Report: Canada
Andrea K. Bjorklund & Benjamin R. Jarvis	91
§4.01 Introduction	91
[A] Recognition and Enforcement	92
[B] Set-aside	94
§4.02 Sources of Interpretation	95

[A] Domestic Sources	95
[B] International Law & Other Sources	96
[C] Court Decisions in Related Cases	97
§4.03 Examples of Application	99
[A] Relevant Breach	99
[B] No Relevant Breach	101
[1] Recognition and Enforcement	101
[2] Set-aside	103
[C] Case Management and Abuse of Due Process	105
§4.04 Standard of Review	107
§4.05 Threshold for a Breach of Due Process	108
§4.06 Party Autonomy	109
[A] Ex Ante Waivers of the Right to Assert a Breach	109
[1] Recognition and Enforcement	110
[2] Set-Aside	111
[B] Ex Post Waivers	112
[C] Failure to Invoke During Set-Aside Proceedings	112
§4.07 Conclusion	113
CHAPTER 5
Country Report: China
Zheng Tang	115
§5.01 Introduction	115
[A] Recognition and Enforcement	116
[B] Set-Aside	116
[C] China’s Special Report-and-Review Scheme	117
§5.02 Sources of Interpretation	118
[A] New York Convention	118
[B] Set-Aside Regime	120
§5.03 Practical Implementation and Examples	120
[A] Proper Notice	120
[B] Awards Exceeding the Scope of the Parties’ Submissions	122
[C] Right to Be Heard	123
[D] Deadlines and Time Frame	125
[E] Admission of Evidence	126
[F] Composition of Tribunals	128
§5.04 Standard of Review	129
[A] Recognition and Enforcement	129
[B] Set-Aside	129
§5.05 Threshold for a Breach of Due Process	130
[A] Recognition and Enforcement	130
[B] Set-Aside	131
§5.06 Due Process and Party Autonomy	132
§5.07 Conclusion	133

CHAPTER 6
Country Report: The Republic of Cyprus
Soterios Loizou	135
§6.01 Introduction	135
§6.02 The Legal Framework of Due Process in Cyprus	139
§6.03 The Due Process in Legal Practice in Cyprus	143
[A] Access to Justice	145
[B] Fairness of the Procedure	147
[C] Drafting the Arbitral Award	151
§6.04 Postscript: The Due Process Defence in Cyprus	152
§6.05 Conclusion	155
CHAPTER 7
Country Report: France
Caroline Kleiner	157
§7.01 Introduction	157
[A] The Notion of 'Due Process' and Its Translation Into French International Arbitration Law	157
[B] The Normative Framework for Set-Aside and Recognition and Enforcement Proceedings	158
§7.02 Due Process-Related Grounds to Set Aside an Award	160
[A] Violation of Due Process (Principe de la Contradiction) (Article 1520 4° CCP)	161
[1] Standard of Application for Article 1520 4° CCP	161
[2] Decisions Rejecting a Violation of Due Process	162
[3] Decisions Finding a Violation of Due Process	163
[B] Violation of International Public Policy (Article 1520 5° CCP)	165
[1] Equality of Parties and Case Management	167
[2] Equality of Parties and Impossibility to Pay the Advance on Costs	168
[C] Violation of the Arbitral Tribunal's Mandate (Article 1520 3° CCP)	168
§7.03 Due Process-Related Grounds for Refusal of Recognition and Enforcement	170
[A] Violation of Due Process	171
[B] Violation of the Principle of Equality	172
[C] Violation of the Arbitral Tribunal's Mandate	172
§7.04 Due Process and Party Autonomy	173
[A] Ex Post Waivers	173
[B] Ex Ante Waivers	175
§7.05 Conclusion	176
CHAPTER 8
Country Report: Germany
Friedrich Rosenfeld	177

§8.01 Introduction	177
§8.02 The Right to Be Heard and Treated Equally	178
[A] Normative Framework	178
[B] Case Law	180
[1] Commenting on Facts and Submitting Evidence	181
[2] Preclusive Deadlines	182
[3] The Examination of Witnesses and Experts	183
[a] The Decision Whether to Take Evidence	183
[b] The Modalities of the Taking of Evidence	184
[c] Assessment of the Evidence	185
[4] Directions	187
[5] Language	188
[6] Non-participating Parties	188
[7] Conclusion	189
§8.03 The Independence and Impartiality of Arbitrators	189
[A] Normative Framework	190
[B] Case Law	191
§8.04 Proper Notice	192
§8.05 Conclusion	193
CHAPTER 9
Country Report: Hong Kong
Z.J. Jennifer Lim & Charlotte Lelong	195
§9.01 Introduction	195
§9.02 The Legal Framework for Arbitration in Hong Kong	196
[A] Background	196
[B] The Conduct of Arbitral Proceedings	197
[C] Post-Award Proceedings	198
§9.03 The Jurisprudence of Hong Kong Courts	199
[A] The Parties' Due Process Rights	199
[1] The Tribunal's Case Management Decisions	200
[2] The Tribunal's Inquisitorial Powers	204
[3] Due Process and Public Policy	209
[B] The Court's Discretion to Uphold or Remit Awards	210
§9.04 Conclusion	215
CHAPTER 10
Country Report: India
Aditya Singh & Zehaan Trivedi	217
§10.01 Introduction	217
§10.02 The Relevant Normative Framework and the Sources of Interpretation	218
§10.03 Relevant Indian Case Law on Due Process	222
[A] Decisions Finding a Relevant Breach	222
[B] Decisions Rejecting a Relevant Breach	224
[1] Recognition and Enforcement	224

	[2] Set-Aside	226
§10.04	Standard of Review and Threshold	228
§10.05	Party Autonomy	230
	[A] Ex Ante Waivers of the Right to Assert a Breach	230
	[B] Ex Post Waivers of the Right to Assert a Breach	233
	[1] Recognition and Enforcement	233
	[2] Set-Aside	234
§10.06	Conclusion	234
CHAPTER 11
Country Report: Italy
Francesca Ragno
§11.01	Introduction to Italian Arbitration Law and Its Due Process Guarantees	237
§11.02	Due Process Violations as Grounds for Annulment of Arbitral Awards	240
	[A] Case Management Issues	243
	[B] Ne Eat Iudex Extra Petita Partium	244
	[C] Party Autonomy	245
§11.03	Due Process Violations as a Ground to Refuse Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards	246
	[A] Proper Notice and the Right to Present One's Case	248
	[B] Irregularity in the Composition of the Arbitral Authority or the Arbitration Procedure	249
	[C] Public Policy	249
§11.04	Final Remarks	250
CHAPTER 12
Country Report: Japan
Koji Takahashi
§12.01	Japanese Arbitration Law in Brief	251
§12.02	Rules for Post-Award Review of Arbitral Procedure	252
	[A] Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards	252
	[B] Annulment of Arbitral Awards	252
§12.03	Interpretation	253
	[A] Annulment	253
	[1] General Guidelines for Handling a Motion for Annulment	254
	[2] Inability to Present One's Case	254
	[3] Decisions Beyond the Scope of Submission	255
	[4] Breach of Procedural Rules for Arbitration	256
	[5] Violation of 'Public Order or Good Morals'	256
	[B] Recognition and Enforcement	257
§12.04	Threshold and Standard of Review	258
§12.05	Due Process Paranoia	259
	[A] Evaluation of the Case Law	259
	[B] Public Policy Scrutiny of Arbitral Procedure	261

	[C] Concluding Remarks	264
CHAPTER 13
Country Report: Middle East
Nayla Comair-Obeid & Zeina Obeid
§13.01	Introduction	265
§13.02	Due Process Requirements for Arbitration in Arab	267
	[A] Due Process as a Breach of Domestic and International Public Policy	267
	[B] Annulment versus Enforcement of Awards	269
	[C] Standard of Review	271
	[D] Waivers	272
	[E] The Substantive Due Process Rights	273
	[F] Arbitration Proceedings Affected By Nullity	276
	[G] Breach of Due Process Resulting From the Conduct of Arbitrators	277
§13.03	Conclusion	278
CHAPTER 14
Country Report: The Netherlands
Jacob B. van de Velden & Abdel Khalek Zirar
§14.01	Introduction	279
§14.02	Legal Framework	281
	[A] Due Process	281
	[B] Recognition and Enforcement and Setting Aside	283
	[1] Recognition and Enforcement and Setting Aside of Domestic Awards	283
	[2] Standard of Review	286
	[3] Treaty-Based Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Awards	287
	[4] Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Awards Based on the DCCP	288
	[C] Waiver and Estoppel	289
	[D] Referral Back to the Tribunal (Remission)	290
§14.03	Procedure in General	290
	[A] Administration of Deadlines	290
	[B] Allocation of Hearing Time	291
	[C] Communication with the Parties	291
	[D] Offering Preliminary Views	293
	[E] Notes and Reports of Hearings	293
	[F] Applicable Laws or Standard	294
	[G] Costs of the Arbitral Proceedings	294
§14.04	Submissions	295
	[A] Disregarding / Refusing (Additional) Written Submissions	295
	[B] Disregarding / Refusing (Additional) Oral Submissions	296

§14.05 Evidence	297
[A] Decisions to Refuse, Disregard, or Not Take (Further) Evidence	297
[1] Refusing or Disregarding Evidence	297
[2] Refusing to Order the Production of Documents	299
[3] Refusing to Take Witness Evidence	300
[4] Refusing to Take Expert Evidence	303
[5] Refusing or Limiting the Cross-Examination of Witnesses	303
[6] Refusing or Limiting the Cross-Examination of Experts	304
[7] Not Appointing an Independent Expert	305
[B] Allegations of Procedural Irregularities in Taking Evidence	306
[1] Relying on Evidence Not Invoked by the Parties	306
[2] Taking Evidence Outside the Presence of the Parties	307
[3] Relying on Evidence That Was Not Available to (Both) Parties	307
[4] Relying on Evidence That Parties Could Not Sufficiently Comment On	309
[5] Relying on Expert Evidence That Has Been Produced in Violation of the Equality of Arms of the Parties	309
§14.06 Conclusion	311
CHAPTER 15
Country Report: Norway
Giuditta Cordero-Moss	313
§15.01 Introduction	313
§15.02 Annulment and Refusal of Enforcement	315
§15.03 Autonomous Interpretation	316
§15.04 Impact on the Decision	319
§15.05 Right to Be Heard	320
§15.06 Flexible Procedure	323
§15.07 Waivers	324
§15.08 Conclusion	326
CHAPTER 16
Country Report: Russia
Mikhail Batsura	329
§16.01 Introduction	329
§16.02 General Overview of the Law on Arbitration in Russia	330
§16.03 The Russian Courts' Approach to Due Process in International Commercial Arbitration	333
[A] Introductory Observations	334
[B] The Requirement of Proper Notice	335
[1] Burden of Proof of Improper Notice	335
[2] Standards on Adequacy of Notice of Proceedings	337
[3] Evidence of Proper Notice	341
[4] Timely Notice of the Arbitral Hearings	343

[5] Authority to Receive Notice of the Arbitral Hearings	344
[6] Principles of Good Faith and Reasonableness	346
[C] The Right to Be Heard and the Right to Equal Treatment	347
[D] The Public Policy Exception	349
§16.04 Conclusion	351
CHAPTER 17
Country Report: Singapore
Jonathan Lim	353
§17.01 Introduction	353
§17.02 Legal Framework for Arbitral Due Process in Singapore	355
[A] Statutory Provisions in Singapore on Due Process	355
[1] Due Process Guarantees in the IAA and Model Law	355
[2] Post-Award Remedies Under the IAA and Model Law Based on Due Process Violations	356
[B] Jurisprudential Principles in Singapore on Due Process	359
[1] High Threshold for Successful Challenge	360
[2] Deference to Arbitral Tribunals' Case Management Powers	361
[3] Requirements of Causal Nexus and Prejudice	362
§17.03 Factual Scenarios	363
[A] Written Submissions	364
[B] Timelines For and Exclusion of Evidence	365
[C] Oral Hearings and Cross-Examination	366
[D] Document Production	367
[E] Other Procedural Directions	369
§17.04 Waiver of Due Process Protections	370
[A] Implied Waiver Based on Failure to Challenge	371
[B] Express Waiver	372
[C] Failure to Raise Objections in Setting Aside	373
§17.05 Conclusion	373
CHAPTER 18
Country Report: Switzerland
Simon M. Hohler	375
§18.01 Introduction	375
§18.02 The Relevant Regulatory Framework in Switzerland	376
[A] Swiss Private International Law Act	376
[1] Chapter 12 PILA as the Lex Arbitri in International Arbitrations in Switzerland	376
[2] The Discretion of the Arbitral Tribunal in Proceedings Governed by Chapter 12 PILA	376
[3] Limit No. 1: The Parties' Right to Be Heard in Adversarial Proceedings (Articles 182(3) and 190(2)(d) PILA)	378

[4] Limit No. 2: The Parties' Right to Equal Treatment (Articles 182(3) and 190(2)(d) PILA)	379
[5] Limit No. 3: Procedural Public Policy (Article 190(2)(e) PILA)	381
[B] New York Convention	381
[1] New York Convention Governs Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards in Switzerland	381
[2] The Discretion of the Arbitral Tribunal in Proceedings in Light of the New York Convention	382
[3] Limit No. 1: The Parties' Right to Present Their Case (Article V(1)(b) New York Convention)	382
[4] Limit No. 2: No Irregularity in the Conduct of the Arbitral Proceedings (Article V(1)(d) New York Convention)	383
[5] Limit No. 3: Public Policy (Article V(2)(b) New York Convention)	383
§18.03 Due Process-Related Grounds for Set-Aside of Awards	384
[A] Preliminary Remarks for Set-Aside Proceedings in Switzerland	384
[B] The Review of Alleged Due Process Violations Under the Swiss Lex Arbitri	385
[1] Standard of Review	385
[2] Threshold	386
[3] Waiver of the Right to Be Heard or the Right to Equal Treatment	386
[C] Specific Issues of Due Process	388
[1] Administration of Deadlines	388
[2] Hearings/Allocation of Hearing Time	389
[3] Right to Make Submissions	390
[4] Right to Submit Evidence	392
[5] Rules of Procedure	393
[6] (Further) Procedural Conduct of the Arbitrator	393
§18.04 Due Process-Related Grounds for Refusing Recognition and Enforcement of Awards	395
[A] The Review of Alleged Due Process Violations under the New York Convention	395
[1] The Standard of Review	395
[2] Threshold	395
[B] Specific Issues of Due Process	396
§18.05 Conclusion	397
CHAPTER 19
Country Report: United Kingdom
Hattie R. Middleditch	399
§19.01 Introduction	399
§19.02 Framework Issues	400

[A] Due Process Bases for Annulment and Refusal of Recognition and Enforcement	401
[1] Annulment	401
[a] Due Process Bases For Annulment: The Statutory Framework	401
[b] Due Process Bases for Annulment: Interpretation and Threshold	402
[2] Recognition and Enforcement	405
[a] Due Process Bases for Refusal to Enforce: Statutory Framework	405
[b] Due Process Bases for Refusal to Enforce: Interpretation and Threshold	406
[B] Waiver	406
[1] Waiver in Annulment Proceedings	407
[2] Waiver in Recognition and Enforcement Proceedings	407
[C] Additional Issues in Recognition and Enforcement Proceedings: Estoppel, Finality, Recognition of Annulment Decisions and Adjournment	408
[1] Issue Estoppel and the Public Policy of Finality	409
[2] Recognition of Decisions to Annul	411
[3] Adjournment of Recognition or Enforcement Proceedings Pending Outcome of Annulment Proceedings	412
§19.03 Examples	412
[A] Examples of the English Courts' Consideration of Due Process Grounds in Annulment Proceedings	413
[1] Examples of Successful Applications on the Basis of Failure to Give Notice (Arbitration Act, Sections 68(2)(a) and 68(2)(d))	413
[2] Unsuccessful Challenges Based on Failure to Comply with General Duty of Fairness (Arbitration Act, Section 68(2)(a))	416
[3] Unsuccessful Challenges Based on Failure to Deal With the Issues (Arbitration Act, Section 68(2)(d))	418
[4] Challenges Based on the Ground That the Tribunal Exceeded Its Powers (Arbitration Act, Section 68(2)(b))	420
[5] Challenges Based on the Ground That Arbitration Is Not in Accordance with the Parties' Agreement (Arbitration Act, Section 68(2)(c))	420
[6] Challenges Based on Award Being Obtained by Fraud or in a Way That Is Contrary to Public Policy (Arbitration Act, Section 68(2)(g))	421
[B] Examples of the English Courts' Consideration of Due Process Grounds in Recognition and Enforcement Proceedings	422
[1] Inability to Present One's Case (Arbitration Act, Section 103(2)(c))	423

Table of Contents

[2]	Arbitral Procedure Not in Accordance with Party Agreement (Arbitration Act, Section 103(2)(e))	425
[3]	Award Contrary to Public Policy (Arbitration Act, Section 103(3))	427
§19.04	Conclusion	428
CHAPTER 20
Country Report: The United States of America
	Ina C. Popova & Duncan Pickard	429
§20.01	Introduction	429
§20.02	US Legal Framework for Due Process in International Arbitral Awards	429
[A]	Arbitration in the US Federal System	430
[B]	Due Process and Its Interpretation in the Review of Arbitral Awards	432
§20.03	Judicial Review of Arbitral Awards for Due Process	433
[A]	Personal Jurisdiction	434
[B]	Set-Aside under the FAA	436
[1]	Refusal to Postpone a Hearing	437
[2]	Failure to Hear Pertinent Evidence	437
[3]	Other Misbehavior That Prejudiced the Rights of Any Party	438
[C]	Defenses to Enforcement Under the New York Convention	439
[1]	Inability to Present One's Case	440
[2]	Procedure or Composition of Tribunal Inconsistent with Agreement or Governing Law	442
[3]	Public Policy	443
[D]	Party Autonomy to Determine Procedure	445
§20.04	Conclusion	446
Index		449