

PUBLIC OFFICERS

AND THE

DE FACTO DOCT

IN ITS RELATION TO PUBLIC OFFICERS AND PUBLIC CORPORATIONS BASED UPON THE ENGLISH, AMERICAN, AND CANADIAN CASES INCLUDING COMMENTS UPON EXTRAORDINARY LEGAL REMEDIES IN REFERENCE TO THE TRIAL OF TITLE TO OFFICE AND CORPORATE EXISTENCE

BY

ALBERT CONSTANTINEAU B. A. D. C. L.

Judge of Prescott and Russell, Ont.

Rochester, N. Y.

THE LAWYERS CO-OPERATIVE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

1910.

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

BOOK I.

OF THE DE FACTO DOCTRINE AND OF PUBLIC OFFICES AND OFFICERS IN GENERAL.

CHAPTER I.

THE DE FACTO DOCTRINE—INTRODUCTORY REMARKS.

§ 1. Definition of the de facto doctrine	3
2. Same subject	4
3. Necessity of the de facto doctrine	5
4. Universality of the same	7
5. Historical sketch of the de facto doctrine in England	8
6. Same subject	10
7. Same subject	12
8. Historical sketch of the de facto doctrine in the United States	13
9. Same subject	15
10. Historical sketch of the de facto doctrine in Canada	16
11. Same subject	19
12. De facto doctrine different from legal presumption as to official character	20
13. To what public officers de facto doctrine is applicable	22

CHAPTER II.

OF PUBLIC OFFICES AND OFFICERS—DE JURE AND DE FACTO OFFICERS—USURPERS.

§ 14. English definitions of "office" and "officer"	24
15. American definitions	25
16. Difference between an office and an ordinary employment	25
17. Classification of offices	26
18. Nature and incidents of English offices	27

§ 19. Nature and incidents of American offices 28
 20. Nature and incidents of Canadian offices 29
 21. Definition of an officer de jure 30
 22. Definition of an officer de facto 31
 23. General characteristics of an officer de facto 32
 24. Officers holding by defeasible title 33
 25. Definition of a usurper 35

BOOK II.

OF THE REQUISITES TO CONSTITUTE AN OFFICER DE FACTO.

CHAPTER III.

INTRODUCTORY.

§ 26. What are such requisites 39
 27. Purpose of Book II. 39

CHAPTER IV.

EXISTENCE OF DE JURE OFFICE NECESSARY TO CONSTITUTE AN OFFICER DE FACTO.

§ 28. General rule 41
 29. Authorities upholding above rule 42
 30. A person cannot be a de facto officer of an abolished office... 45
 31. Conflicting doctrine 47
 32. Same subject 48
 33. Same subject 50
 34. A person cannot be a de facto officer of an office attempted to be created by an unconstitutional Act 51
 35. Same subject 53
 36. Same subject 54
 37. Conflicting doctrine 55
 38. Same subject 57
 39. Same subject 59
 40. Same subject 60
 41. Observations on unconstitutionality of laws—No unconstitutionally created offices in England..... 61

CHAPTER V.

OF OFFICES RECOGNIZED BY LAW EX NECESSITATE AND OFFICES IRREGULARLY CREATED—DE FACTO GOVERNMENTS—DE FACTO MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

§ 41a. Scope of this chapter 64
 42. Officers under de facto governments 64
 43. Offices irregularly created 65
 44. Same subject—Illustrations 67
 45. Same subject—Illustrations continued 68
 46. Municipal corporations 70
 47. De facto corporations 71
 48. Status of a de facto municipal corporation, and of the offices thereunder 72
 49. Requisites to constitute a municipal corporation de facto... 73
 50. Where there is no law authorizing municipal corporations, no such corporation can exist de facto 74
 51. General views of the authorities as to whether an unconstitutional law can create a de facto municipal corporation... 76
 52. Doctrine that unconstitutional law cannot create a de facto municipal corporation 77
 53. Authorities holding that corporations organized under an unconstitutional law are only irregularly created..... 80
 54. Same subject—Illustrations 81
 55. Same subject—Illustrations continued 83
 56. Where unconstitutional law causes an irregularity, though the municipal organization is not effected under it..... 84
 57. Authorities unconditionally holding that a municipal corporation may be created by an unconstitutional law..... 85
 58. Mere irregularities in the organization of a municipal corporation will not deprive it of a de facto character—Must be, however, a bona fide attempt to organize..... 87
 59. Same subject 89
 60. Same subject 91
 61. Where no bona fide attempt to comply with the law, no de facto corporation 93
 62. Actual user of the corporate franchise 95
 63. Collateral grounds tending to sustain de facto corporations.. 95
 64. Rule as to collateral attacks on de facto corporations..... 96
 65. Same subject 98
 66. Estoppel to deny corporate existence of de facto corporation 98
 67. Extent of the rule of estoppel 101
 68. Same subject 102
 69. Long user of municipal franchise with public or state acquiescence 104
 70. Same subject 106
 71. Legislative recognition of municipal corporations 107
 72. Same subject 108

CHAPTER VI.

POSSESSION OF OFFICE NECESSARY TO CONSTITUTE AN OFFICER DE FACTO—INCIDENTS OF POSSESSION.

§ 73. Necessity of possession	110
74. Officer de jure and officer de facto may exist simultaneously, but both cannot hold at same time	112
75. Same subject	113
76. Same subject—Illustrations	115
77. Same subject—Illustrations continued	117
78. Two officers de facto cannot hold office at same time	119
79. Where two rival claimants have each only a partial or imperfect possession of the office, neither is a de facto officer	120
80. Where one of two claimants has full possession, the other cannot deprive him of his de facto character by unlawfully dispossessing him	122
81. Possession of office by usurper affords no right	124

CHAPTER VII.

COLOR OF TITLE OR AUTHORITY NECESSARY TO CONSTITUTE AN OFFICER DE FACTO.

§ 82. Color of title, ground of distinction between officers de facto and usurpers	126
83. Color of title, definition of	127
84. Color of authority, definition of	128
85. Color of right, definition of	128
86. Other expressions used by judges	129
87. Colorable—Colorable title—Colorable election—Definitions of	129
88. Same subject	131
89. Color of office or colore officii—By virtue of an office or virtute officii—Meaning of	131
90. Color of title or authority, from what derived	132
91. Same subject—Examples of circumstances giving color of title or authority	133
92. Same subject—Examples of circumstances giving no color of title or authority	135
93. No color when official title known to be bad	137
94. Generally no color after title judicially declared invalid	138

BOOK III.

OF THE DIFFERENT CLASSES OF OFFICERS DE FACTO.

CHAPTER VIII.

INTRODUCTORY.

§ 95. Classification of officers de facto	143
---	-----

CHAPTER IX.

OFFICERS DE FACTO BY REPUTATION OR ACQUIESCENCE, WITHOUT A KNOWN APPOINTMENT OR ELECTION.

§ 96. Earlier American cases as to necessity of election or appointment	145
97. Same subject	146
98. Probable cause of the erroneous American definitions—R. vs. Lisle	148
99. Same case as reported by Strange	149
100. Criticism of R. vs. Lisle by Chief Justice Butler	150
101. Later American cases declare color of election or appointment unnecessary	151
102. Same subject	153
103. Same principle upheld by English and Canadian authorities	156
104. What will constitute an officer de facto by reputation or acquiescence	157
105. Reputation or acquiescence—Definition of terms	158
106. Nature of office—Effect of open possession upon reputation	159
107. Circumstances establishing or affecting reputation	161
108. Same subject	162
109. Same subject	164
110. Acquiescence—Effect thereof upon assumed official character	166
111. Usurpers may become officers de facto by reputation or acquiescence	168
112. Officers de jure who usurp the official functions of other officers	168

CHAPTER X.

OFFICERS DE FACTO BY REASON OF ENTRY BEFORE COMMENCEMENT OF TERM, OR HOLDING OVER AFTER EXPIRATION OF SAME.

§ 113. General rule	171
114. Same subject	172
115. Entry before beginning of official term—Illustrations.....	173
116. Officers holding over—English authorities	174
117. Same subject—Canadian authorities	176
118. Classification of officers holding over, based upon the American authorities	177
119. Officers holding over indefinitely—American illustrations... 178
120. Same subject—Deputies holding over	180
121. Officers temporarily holding over until assumption of office by successors	181
122. Same subject—Illustrations	181
123. Same subject—Officer holding over after qualification of successor	183
124. Officers who, under claim of right, refuse to surrender the offices to their successors	184
125. Officers holding over after abolition of their offices..... 186
126. Holding must be uninterrupted	187

CHAPTER XI.

OFFICERS DE FACTO BECAUSE OF FAILURE TO QUALIFY AS REQUIRED BY LAW.

§ 127. General rule	189
128. Failure to take proper oath	190
129. Failure to take oath of allegiance	191
130. Failure to take oath within time prescribed by law	191
131. Taking oath before unauthorized persons	192
132. Oath or certificate of oath never filed, or not filed in time... 192
133. Total failure to take any oath—English illustrations..... 193
134. Same subject—Canadian illustrations	194
135. Same subject—Same subject	195
136. Same subject—American illustrations	196
137. Irregularities concerning official bond	198
138. Total failure to give bond	199
139. Failure in other matters affecting official qualification..... 199
140. Failure to qualify when such failure is declared to operate a forfeiture of office	201

§ 141. Same subject—American illustrations	202
142. Same subject—Same subject	204
143. Same subject—Same subject	205
144. Same subject—English illustrations	205
145. Same subject—Canadian illustrations	207
146. Same subject—Where statute held mandatory	209
147. Same subject—Same subject	210
148. Same subject—Same subject	211
149. Same subject—Authorities supporting above doctrine..... 211
150. Same subject—Same subject	212

CHAPTER XII.

OFFICERS DE FACTO BECAUSE OF INELIGIBILITY, OR LEGAL DISABILITY ARISING DURING CURRENCY OF OFFICIAL TERM.

§ 151. General rule	214
152. English illustrations	215
153. Same subject	216
154. American illustrations—Lack of age	218
155. Ineligibility through taint in the blood	218
156. Ineligibility by reason of alienism	219
157. Ineligibility by reason of sex	219
158. Ineligibility by reason of defalcation	220
159. Ineligibility through lack of property qualification..... 220
160. Ineligibility through lack of professional qualification..... 221
161. Ineligibility by reason of non-residence	221
162. Ineligibility through the holding of an incompatible office... 222
163. Same subject	223
164. Votes cast for ineligible candidate not generally void..... 225
165. Disability arising during currency of term	226
166. Disability through change of residence	226
167. Change of residence effected by law	227
168. Disqualification by reason of insolvency—Canadian illustrations	228
169. Disqualification by reason of exhaustion of the constitutional period of holding	228
170. Disqualification by reason of acceptance of incompatible office	229

CHAPTER XIII.

OFFICERS DE FACTO UNDER COLOR OF IRREGULAR ELECTION
OR APPOINTMENT.

§ 171. General rule	231
172. English illustrations	232
173. Canadian illustrations	233
174. American illustrations—Irregular elections.....	234
175. Same subject—Invalid appointments	236
176. Officers verbally appointed	238
177. Election or appointment held or made at improper time....	240
178. Appointment to office not vacant	242
179. Appointment for a term longer than warranted by law.....	243
180. Certificate of election confers a prima facie title, though result of election wrongfully determined	245
181. Irregularities in election or appointment must be bona fide	246

CHAPTER XIV.

OFFICERS DE FACTO UNDER COLOR OF IRREGULAR ELECTION
OR APPOINTMENT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED OFFICIAL PERSON OR BODY.

§ 182. General rule	248
183. English illustrations	249
184. Same subject	250
185. Canadian illustrations	252
186. American illustrations	254
187. Conflicting doctrine	256
188. Elective office filled by appointment or vice versa	257
189. Appointment without concurrence of all having authority to appoint	259
190. Same subject—Apparently conflicting cases distinguished..	260
191. Where authority to appoint exists only in particular cases..	262

CHAPTER XV.

DE FACTO OFFICERS UNDER COLOR OF AN ELECTION OR AP-POINTMENT BY OR PURSUANT TO AN UNCONSTITUTIONAL LAW.

§ 192. General rule	264
193. No distinction between laws manifestly unconstitutional and laws of doubtful constitutionality	265

§ 194. General rule illustrated	266
195. Same subject—De facto judicial officers	267
196. Same subject—Same subject	269
197. Conflicting authorities.	270
198. Unconstitutional act removing an officer and appointing a successor	272
199. Unconstitutional act appointing to an office which is and re- mains full in law and in fact	273
200. Same subject	275
201. Unconstitutional act altering constitution of office	276
202. Unconstitutional act altering mode of filling an office.....	278

BOOK IV.

OF THE RIGHTS, POWERS, DUTIES, AND LIABILITIES OF DE
FACTO OFFICERS, INCLUDING LIABILITY OF THEIR SURE-TIES.

CHAPTER XVI.

INTRODUCTORY.

§ 202a. Preliminary remarks and divisions of this book	283
--	-----

CHAPTER XVII.

OFFICER DE FACTO NOT GENERALLY ENTITLED TO ANY PER-SONAL ADVANTAGE OR PRIVILEGE, BUT ENJOYS RIGHTS
FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE PUBLIC.

203. Officer de facto has no personal privileges	285
204. Same subject	286
205. Right of officer de facto to act on behalf of public	288
206. Injunction or prohibition not granted to prevent officers de facto from acting	290
207. Officers de facto protected by injunction	291
208. Right to recover property of office	293
209. Same subject	294
210. Right to recover money pertaining to office	295
211. Same subject—Conflicting decisions	297
212. Right of officer de facto to defeat quo warranto proceedings by perfecting his title	298

CHAPTER XVIII.

RIGHT OF OFFICER DE FACTO TO PROTECTION OF CRIMINAL LAW IN EXECUTION OF HIS DUTIES.

§ 213. General rule	300
214. Resisting officer de facto	301
215. Killing de facto officer	302
216. De facto officer killing person resisting him	304
217. Persons assisting de facto officers protected	304
218. Escaping from officer de facto.....	305

CHAPTER XIX.

RESPECTIVE RIGHTS OF OFFICERS DE JURE AND OFFICERS
DE FACTO IN REGARD TO SALARY AND EMOLUMENTS OF OFFICE.

§ 219. De jure officer generally entitled to emoluments of office....	306
220. De jure officer's right not dependent upon his performance of official duties	308
221. Conflicting doctrine	309
222. Extent of recovery by de jure officer from public body.....	311
223. De jure officer's right to recover not affected by any distinc- tion between fees and salary	312
224. Rule protecting public bodies from paying a second time salary already paid to a de facto officer	313
225. Same subject	315
226. Foregoing rule not followed by certain courts	316
227. Same subject	317
228. Injunction may sometimes be granted to restrain payment of salary to de facto incumbent pending contest of title....	319
229. De jure officer may recover salary from de facto officer.....	320
230. Same subject—English rule	322
231. Amount recoverable from the de facto officer	323
232. Same subject—Assumpsit or tort	324
233. Right to salary pending determination of title to office	327
234. Good faith of de facto officer of no avail to him	329
235. Clear title must be shown by officer de jure to recover salary from State or intruder	329
236. De facto officer cannot recover salary	330
237. Conflicting doctrine as to right of officer de facto to recover salary	332
238. Doctrine that officer de facto entitled to compensation when there is no de jure officer	334

§ 230. Same subject	335
240. Salary paid to de facto officer cannot presumably be recov- ered back	336

CHAPTER XX.

DUTIES AND CIVIL LIABILITIES OF OFFICER DE FACTO.

§ 241. General rule	339
242. Officer de facto may be compelled to act by mandamus	340
243. Where mandamus directed to officer de facto in his official name	341
244. Officer de facto cannot be compelled to act after he disavows his authority	342
245. Officer de facto may sometimes be civilly liable for acts of omission as well as of commission	342
246. Officer de facto liable for money received by virtue of his office	344
247. Not liable for moneys he could not collect	345
248. Not liable for moneys lawfully expended by him.....	345
249. Liable for funds unlawfully expended	346
249a. Liable in damages for permitting escapes	346
250. Liable for acts of his deputy	347
251. Liable on his official bond	347
252. Contracts inconsistent with duties and responsibilities of officer de facto, void	348

CHAPTER XXI.

CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY OF OFFICER DE FACTO.

§ 253. Theory of criminal responsibility of de facto officer.....	351
254. Officer de facto in general not criminally liable for non-feas- ance in office	352
255. When liable for non-feasance	353
256. Same subject	354
257. Malfeasance in office—Embezzlement—English authorities..	355
258. Same subjects—American authorities	356
259. Extortion by officer de facto	357
260. Officer de facto accepting bribe	358
261. Permitting escapes—English authorities	359
262. Same subject—American authorities	359
263. Misconduct in office	360

CHAPTER XXII.

DE FACTO OFFICER LIABLE TO PENALTIES FOR USURPATION,
AND TO DAMAGES WHEN SUED AS A TRESPASSER FOR ACT-
ING WITHOUT AUTHORITY.

§ 263a. Introductory remarks	362
264. De facto officer punishable for usurpation	363
265. Not punishable when acting bona fide	364
266. Officer de facto liable as a trespasser	364
267. Same subject—Illustrations.	366
268. Evidence of official reputation insufficient	367
269. Conflicting authorities	368
270. Same subject	369
271. Officer de facto liable for acts done by his order	370
272. What damages recoverable	370
273. Persons executing process issued by de facto officer not lia- ble—English authorities	371
274. Same subject—American authorities	373
275. Persons assisting de facto officers not liable	374

CHAPTER XXIII.

LIABILITY OF SURETIES ON OFFICIAL BOND OF DE FACTO OFFICER.

§ 276. General rule	375
277. Official acts of officer de facto binding on his sureties	376
278. Sureties of officer de facto estopped from denying his title..	377
279. Same subject—Irregularity of appointment	378
280. Same subject—Same subject—English authorities	379
281. Same subject—Defective qualification	382
282. Same subject—Same subject—Canadian authorities	382
283. Liability of sureties where appointment declared void by statute	383
284. Liability of sureties where statute declares forfeiture of office on non-performance of certain requirements	385
285. Where forfeiture judicially declared, but officer de facto in office	387
286. Same subject—Special duties of sheriffs	388
287. Liability of sureties of officer de facto by reason of holding over—General principles	389
288. Rule of construction of official bonds—English authorities..	390
289. Same subject—American authorities	392
290. Where the statute provides for holding over	394

§ 291. Same subject	395
292. Jurisdictions where sureties of holding over officer held liable —Officers de jure	396
293. Same subject	397
294. Jurisdictions where sureties of holding over officers held not liable—Officers de facto	399
295. Same subject	400
296. Same subject	401
297. Same subject	402
298. Liability of sureties where the bond provides for holding over	403
299. De facto officer's sureties not liable to de jure officer for of- ficial salary or fees	404

BOOK V.

OF THE VALIDITY OF THE OFFICIAL ACTS OF DE FACTO
OFFICERS.

CHAPTER XXIV.

INTRODUCTORY.

§ 300. Scope of this book	407
---------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XXV.

ACTS OF DE FACTO OFFICERS VALID—RULE EXPLAINED AND ILLUSTRATED.

§ 301. General rule	409
302. Acts not valid when official character notoriously bad....	411
303. Acts not valid as to persons aware of the officer's want of title	414
304. Same subject	415
305. Knowledge of defective title of appointees not generally im- putable to appointors—Liability of appointors for acts of appointees discussed	417
306. Same subject—English authority	420
307. Same subject—American authorities	422

§ 308. Where ignorance or defective title is due to gross negligence, de facto rule cannot be invoked	425
309. Conflicting ruling in New York in regard to effect of knowledge of defective title	426
310. De facto rule does not apply where same would work injury.	428
311. Acts of de facto Governors and Legislators in relation to the passing of laws	429
312. Ordinances or other measures passed by de facto municipal bodies	430
313. Bonds signed or issued by de facto municipal officers	432
313a. Contracts made by de facto officers binding on corporation.	435
314. Acts of de facto municipal officers in relation to various matters	437
315. Payments by or to officer de facto, valid and binding on all parties	439
315a. Validity of marriages performed by de facto officers	440
316. Validity of instruments acknowledged before or registered by de facto officers	440
317. Acts of de facto clerks and deputy clerks of courts	444
318. Acts of de facto sheriffs and constables, and de facto deputies	446
319. Acts of de facto prosecuting attorneys	448
320. Validity of acts of de facto officers in relation to the selection and swearing of jurymen	449
321. Validity of bonds or recognizances taken or approved by officers de facto	451

CHAPTER XXVI.

ACTS OF DE FACTO OFFICERS IN RELATION TO THE LEVY AND COLLECTION OF TAXES—TAX TITLES.

§ 322. General rule	453
323. Tax titles	454
324. Order in which the authorities are reviewed	456
325. English rulings	456
326. Canadian rulings	457
327. Rulings in Maine	459
328. Rulings in Vermont	460
329. Rulings in New Hampshire	462
330. Rulings in Arkansas	464
331. Rulings in Mississippi	466
332. Rulings in California	467
333. Rulings in New York	468
334. Rulings in Michigan	468
335. Rulings in Illinois	469

§ 336. Rulings in New Jersey	470
337. Rulings in Pennsylvania, Nevada, South Carolina, Texas, and Ohio	471
338. Rulings in Massachusetts, Kansas, and Maryland	473
339. Rulings in Iowa, Nebraska, Georgia, and Washington	474
340. Rulings in Kentucky, Wisconsin, Tennessee, and other states.	475

CHAPTER XXVII.

APPOINTMENT OR ELECTION TO OFFICE BY DE FACTO OFFICERS.

§ 341. English doctrine	477
342. Where de facto officer merely perfected official title, same rule did not apply	479
343. Canadian rulings	480
344. Doctrine in New York	481
345. Judgment of ouster against one appointee, not evidence against another	482
346. General rule in America sustains validity of appointments made by de facto officers	483
347. Same subject	485
348. Same subject	486

CHAPTER XXVIII.

ACTS OF DE FACTO OFFICERS IN RELATION TO THE HOLDING AND CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS.

§ 349. English Parliamentary doctrine	487
350. Same subject	488
351. Same subject—Statutory ineligibility of returning officer ..	490
352. Same subject—Ineligibility of returning officer by reason of minority	490
353. Same subject—Failure of election officers to take oath	491
354. Returning officers joined by unauthorized persons	491
355. Unauthorized persons acting as returning officers	492
356. English doctrine adopted in Canada	493
357. English judicial doctrine	494
358. English judicial doctrine followed in a Canadian case	495
359. Former doctrine of the American House of Representatives	496
360. Same subject	497
361. Present doctrine	498

§ 362. Same subject	499
363. Same subject—Election officers must be appointed by authorized persons	500
364. American judicial doctrine	500
365. Same subject—Irregular appointment of election officers ..	501
366. Same subject—Officers ineligible or disqualified	504
367. Same subject—Omission to take oath	505
368. Same subject—Election officers acting in insufficient number or joined by improper persons	507

CHAPTER XXIX.

VALIDITY OF OATHS TAKEN BEFORE DE FACTO OFFICERS—PERJURY.

§ 369. Affidavits and depositions taken before de facto officers, valid	509
370. Perjury cannot be committed at common law before a de facto tribunal	510
371. English doctrine still as at common law	511
372. Exception to the English rule	513
373. Evidence of official reputation sufficient, unless rebutted ..	514
374. Doctrine in Canada	515
375. Observations on case of Drew vs The King	517
376. Same subject—Language of the commissioners	518
377. Same subject—Language of the Code	519
378. Same subject—Status of the Recorder	520
379. Doctrine in New York	524
380. Same subject	525
381. Doctrine in Alabama	528
382. Doctrine in Kentucky	529
383. Doctrine in Ohio	529
384. Doctrine in Indiana	531
385. Doctrine in South Carolina	532
386. Doctrine in Iowa	532
387. Doctrine in New Hampshire	533
388. Doctrine in Texas	533
389. Doctrine in Illinois	534
390. Doctrine in Florida	534
391. Doctrine in Maryland	535
392. Doctrine in Michigan	535
393. Doctrine in Oklahoma	536
394. Doctrine in Kansas	536

CHAPTER XXX.

VALIDITY OF ACTS OF DE FACTO JUDICIAL OFFICERS—DE FACTO COURTS.

§ 395. Scope of this chapter	539
396. De facto courts	539
397. Same subject—Rulings	541
398. De facto courts may exist under a de facto government	543
399. De facto courts under other circumstances	545
400. Courts of the Confederate States of America	545
401. Same subject—First period	546
402. Same subject—Second period	547
403. Same subject—Third period	548
404. Limitations to the above doctrine	550
405. Who are de facto judicial officers	551
406. Title of de facto judicial officers not collaterally assailable ..	552
407. Same subject—Illustrations	553
408. Same subject—Same subject	554
409. Same subject—Same subject	556
410. Same subject—Same subject	557
411. Same subject—English illustrations	559
412. Same subject—Same subject	560
413. Same subject—Canadian authorities	562
414. Causing objection to judge to be spread on the record, of no avail	563
415. When foregoing principles are inapplicable	565
416. Same subject—Special judges	566
416a. Same subject—Same subject	568
417. Same subject—Canadian authorities	569
418. Same subject—Public officers only occasionally discharging judicial duties	571
419. Same subject—Justices of the peace only occasionally acting	572
420. Observations on the English and Canadian cases	574
421. Same subject	576
422. Acts of de facto judicial officers, valid	577
423. Acts of de jure judges acting outside their jurisdiction, under an unconstitutional Act	579
424. Same subject—American cases	580
425. Same subject—Canadian cases	582
426. Same subject—Same subject	583
427. Same subject—Same subject	584

BOOK VI.

OF THE REMOVAL OF DE FACTO OFFICERS.

CHAPTER XXXI.

INTRODUCTORY.

- § 428. Scope of this book 589

CHAPTER XXXII.

OF COLLATERAL ATTACKS ON THE TITLE OF DE FACTO OFFICERS—HABEAS CORPUS—CERTIORARI—PROHIBITION—MANDAMUS—INJUNCTION—ETC.

- § 429. De facto officer's title cannot be collaterally assailed 591
 430. Limitations to the above rule 592
 431. Title to office cannot be tried in proceedings to recover official records 594
 432. In United States title cannot be tried in action for recovery of salary 595
 433. Different rule in England 596
 434. De facto officer's title cannot be inquired into by ministerial officers 597
 435. Title to office cannot be determined on habeas corpus 598
 436. Title to office not generally determinable on certiorari—English and Canadian authorities 600
 437. Same subject—Same subject 602
 438. Same subject—American authorities 604
 439. Same subject—Same subject 606
 439a. Same subject—Same subject 607
 440. Title to office not triable by prohibition 610
 441. Title to office cannot be tried by mandamus—English authorities 612
 442. Same subject—American authorities 614
 443. Mandamus lies to compel admission of person having prima facie title to office, though there be another in possession 616
 444. Mandamus proper remedy to restore officer unlawfully removed 619
 445. Mandamus proper remedy to determine de facto title of officer 622

- § 446. Title to office cannot be tried by injunction—American authorities 623
 447. Same subject—English authorities 626
 447a. Injunction under the English Judicature Act 628
 448. Interference of equity on account of breaches of trust—English and American authorities 630
 449. Title to office not triable by writ of assize 632

CHAPTER XXXIII.

OF QUO WARRANTO.

- § 450. General remarks 634
 451. Quo warranto proper remedy to try title to office 635
 452. Writ of quo warranto 636
 453. Information in the nature of quo warranto 637
 454. Quo warranto information extended by statute of Anne 638
 455. Statutory substitutes 639
 456. Statutory proceedings to try validity of elections—Their effect upon quo warranto 640
 457. Same subject 643
 458. Same subject 644
 459. Same subject 646
 460. Different kinds of quo warranto proceedings 647
 461. Quo warranto on behalf of the State—Discretion of prosecuting officers 648
 462. When State has exclusive right of prosecuting quo warranto 650
 463. Quo warranto at the instance of private individuals 651
 464. When private person has sufficient interest to maintain quo warranto 653
 465. Discretion of Court in granting or refusing leave to file quo warranto 655
 466. Circumstances affecting the discretion of the Court 656
 467. Same subject 658
 468. Same subject 659
 469. Time within which quo warranto proceedings must be instituted 662
 470. Public offices respecting which quo warranto lies 663
 471. Officer must be in possession of the office 664
 472. Dual purpose of American statutory quo warranto in some cases—Burden of proof 665
 473. Scope of inquiry in quo warranto 667
 474. Judgment in quo warranto 670